Re: United States v. Robert Gilbert, 1:17-cr-00372-JS

Dear Judge Seybert:

We are counsel to defendant Robert Gilbert in the above-captioned case. Mr. Gilbert is out on bail and is permitted to travel to visit with me, to attend court appearances as directed by the court and to meet with representatives of the government.

As far as we are aware, Mr. Gilbert has fully complied with his bail restrictions. The purpose of this letter is to respectfully request that he be permitted to travel from July 29, 2021 through August 1, 2021 to visit Nantucket, Massachusetts for the weekend. He will be staying at the Hotel Pippa.

Attached hereto is a Proposed Order.

The government has no objection to the travel.
